

Your situation at the end of confinement

Hello,

Following the government's announcement of the confinement linked to the fight against Covid-19, you informed your residence hall of Crous de Toulouse - Occitanie of your temporary departure from the accommodation you had been assigned.

It is imperative that, upon receipt of this email, you inform the residence of your decision with regards to the situations described below.

Please note: without a response from you as of may 17th you will be accountable for your rent from may 18th onwards.

The situations are as follows:

- If you wish to return to your accommodation at the start of the deconfinement period, you must notify your residence by email, indicating your estimated date of return: list of contacts by residence.... If this date changes, you must immediately inform the residence as soon as the new date is known. The invoicing of your rent will be due on the actual date of your return. Please note, the return deadline is May 30th, 2020.
- If you wish to vacate your accommodation permanently, you must inform your residence by email: list of contacts by residence You must then release, clean and return the keys to your accommodation at the time of the departure inventory, the date of which will be set in agreement with the residence, and this within a maximum period of 30 days, after the end of the travel restrictions.
- If you do not show up on the agreed date or fail to provide feedback, all your personal effects will be disposed of and the Crous will proceed to the final inventory. If damage is noted, the corresponding amount will be retained on your security deposit.
- If you are unable to return, you must complete the certificate attached to this email and return it to your residence by email: list of contacts by residence As soon as possible, you must return the keys to your residence. Upon receiving the keys, all your personal effects will be cleared out and the Crous will proceed to the final inventory. If damage is noted, the corresponding amount will be retained on your security deposit.

Unless otherwise stated, your personal belongings will be disposed of or given to a charity
